Exam Results

The HCL Unica Campaign v12.1 Business Administrator (HCL-UNC-BAD-121) certification exam is a pass or fail exam. The exam is scored against a minimum standard established by HCLSoftware subject matter experts who follow certification industry best practices and guidelines.

The exam is scored based on a Sum of Scores which is then converted into a percentage to determine pass or fail. The sum of scores is achieved by weight assigned to each individual question based on level of complexity. The minimum score required to pass the exam is 63 out of a total 90, which is 70%.

Your score report could contain a table of exam competencies that illustrate your performance for each of the areas that were tested. This information is intended to provide general feedback about your exam performance and help you determine the areas where further study might be required. You do not need to achieve a passing score for each competency area. You only need to pass the overall exam.
